Sir,

Subject, Enhancement of the allowance to the
A sistant Surgeon in charge of the Chamundipuram
Dispensary looking after the farm labourers

Ref G O No L 13549-51/1/L 11-47-54 dated 17-2-1948

B.S.
H.S.P.

In the above Government order the allowance to the Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Chamundipuram dispensary which is very near to the Municipal farm was fixed at Rs 15/- for attending to the health of the labourers and other working in the Municipal Farm, exposed to frequent illness on account of the peculiar atmospheric conditions prevailing in the area. The number of labourers working in the Farm since then has increased to nearly 130 and the attendance of the doctor has also been more frequent on account of the continued medical advice that is required in the interest of the health of the labourers and other workers. As the doctor has to attend to this work beyond the normal hours of work at considerable prejudice to his own personal comforts etc, the question of enhancing the present allowance was considered by the Council at their meeting held on the 4th October 1956. After examining the increased work and inconvenience that the doctor was being put to, the council have resolved to enhance the present allowance of Rs 15/- to Rs 20/- per month from the date of the council resolution i.e. 4-10-56. I enclose a copy of the resolution and request that orders of Government may kindly be obtained sanctioning the resolution.

the resolution of the Council. The cost in this behalf will be met under "E-11-Sewage Farm" as usual.

Forwarded with compliments.

Yours faithfully,
